DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kiel et al., US Patent Application Publication Number 2003/0027549 (hereinafter Kiel).

Regarding claims 1, 5 and 9, Kiel discloses a method (computer readable code and system) for purchasing and replenishing wireless network calling time [0001], comprising: purchasing wireless network calling time through a web site [0037]; saving data encoding the purchased calling time from the web site to a portable networking device (activity-monitoring unit) [0009, 0025, 0034]; and transmitting the data encoding the purchased calling time from the portable networking device to an onboard system (client communication device) [0013, 0036].

Regarding claims 2, 6, and 10, Kiel discloses saving an encrypted record of data associated with the purchase within the web site record structure [0037].

Regarding claims 3, 7, and 11, Kiel discloses maintaining an updated record or remaining calling time within the onboard system [0036, 0043].

Regarding claims 4, 8, and 12, Kiel discloses notifying the subscriber when less than a specified amount of calling time remains [0043].

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed November 29, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that Kiel does not teach transmitting the data encoding the purchased calling time from the portable networking device to an onboard system. However, the Examiner respectfully disagrees. Kiel teaches that the purchased calling time is encoded onto the portable networking device (activity monitoring unit). The activity monitoring unit can be connected to the onboard system (client communication device). Then the client communication device receives the encoded purchased calling time [0012, 0013]. Hence the limitations are read in the reference.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
